

Inaugural Event FAQ Fact Sheet

What is Keys to Kenosha?

Keys to Kenosha is a unique, self-guided architectural and cultural tour that offers exclusive access to spaces across the Kenosha area that are not always open to the public. Inspired by events like Doors Open Milwaukee and Open House Chicago, Keys to Kenosha attendees will be able to explore a curated collection of businesses, historic sites, creative spaces, and hidden gems at their own pace.

When is the event?

Saturday, November 7, 2026 | 10am – 4pm

Each participating venue will have its own schedule, so attendees are encouraged to plan ahead and prioritize their must-see stops. There will be additional activities and things to enjoy beyond sites, as well.

How does the tour work?

This is a mostly self-serve, self-paced experience. Some venues will have tours that require pre-registration, and those details will be posted on the KeysToKenosha.com website as they become available. Attendees are welcome to browse the list of participating locations and can choose which sites to visit and in what order throughout the day. No tickets or pre-registration required! Just explore at your own pace.

How many locations are included?

The event will feature 50+ venues across the Kenosha area, each offering a unique experience, from architectural highlights to cultural and creative spaces. Check back often to see if new sites have been added!

What types of places can I expect to visit?

Participants will gain access to a diverse mix of spaces and places:

Arts & Cultural | Civic | Commercial | Educational | Family Friendly | Historic | Housing | Manufacturing | Sacred Spaces | Sustainability Focused

Who should attend Keys to Kenosha?

Architecture and design enthusiasts, History lovers, Curious locals, Visitors looking for an immersive Kenosha experience, anyone interested in discovering new places in the community. This event is for all ages. Our website has information about accessibility of each venue.

Do I need to visit every location?

Not at all! The experience is designed to be flexible - guests can explore as many or as few locations as they'd like. We highly recommend exploring local cafes, restaurants, and shops while in the area, too!

Is this a guided tour?

No, this is a self-guided tour, allowing you to move at your own pace and create your own experience. Some venues will offer docent-led tours at specific times, so watch the website for details.

How is the event funded?

Keys to Kenosha is wholly supported through the generous donations of our primary sponsors: Jockey International, Partners in Design Architects, Snap-On, and Uline. Additional support has been provided by Visit Kenosha, The Gratz, and partnerships with the City of Kenosha and Kenosha County.
