Sharon Clark
Michael Morand
Maie Morand

TYPE OF INCIDENT: 12.13(3)(a) Citizen Complaint

SUMMARY:

On 02/24/2020 the Kenosha District Attorney's Office received a citizen's complaint from Andrew Ellinger alleging that Mrs. Monica Yuhas violated WI State Statues 12.13 (3)(a) by circulating nomination papers for election to Kenosha County Board Supervisor seat for District 18 that contained three (3) signatures she had knowledge of and knew them to be forgeries. The signatures in question are those of Sean and Somer Ganser, Joe and Sharon Clark and Michael and Maie Morand.

On Thursday 02/27/2020 at approximately 2:11PM, I had contact via telephone with Mrs. Monica Yuhas. I explained the reason for me contacting her and inquired as to her procedure for collecting nomination signatures. Mrs. Yuhas advised that she personally circulates her nomination signatures and "is the one to knock on every door to ask for signatures". She advised that her normal practice is to inquire of signers if there are any other eligible voters living in the residence that would be willing to sign her nomination paper. Yuhas went on to state that, on occasion, people will take the signature sheet in their residence for another adult family member to sign.

On Thursday 02/27/2020 at approximately 2:27PM, I made telephone contact with Joseph D. Clark Sr. regarding his signature on Mrs. Yuhas's nomination paper. Mr. Clark replied, "You know I can't recall for sure. I do remember my wife and I were both home."

On Thursday 02/27/2020 at approximately 2:35PM, I had telephone contact with Sharon Clark. Sharon advised that she absolutely remembers signing the nomination form of Mrs. Yuhas. Specifically, Sharon said, "I remember that day because after I signed I brought the form to Joe and he was terribly sick in bed and could barely talk. I asked him if he wanted to sign and he said of course so I signed his name for him because I'm his wife and he could barely move out of bed. We would both be happy to sign again because we are all friends."

On Thursday 02/27/2020 at approximately 2:38PM, I left a message for Mr. Michael Morand to return my call. I was unable to find a contact number for Maie Morand. On Thursday 02/27/2020 at approximately 2:42PM, I had telephone contact with Sean Ganser. Mr. Ganser communicated to me that he remembers signing the nomination form for Mrs. Yuhas. I asked if his wife was available to speak with. Mr. Ganser advised that they were currently in the middle of a funeral and she was unable to talk. Ganser advised that she would be happy to speak with me early next week regarding this matter but said, "if her name is on the form then she signed it as well."

On Monday 03/02/2020 at approximately 8:00AM, I responded to the Morand residence at 10236 47th ave Pleasant Prairie, WI. I spoke with Maie and Michael Morand. Maie advised that she signed the nomination form for Mrs. Yuhas and identified her signature. Michael advised that he was also present in the residence when Maie signed the nomination form and instructed Maie to sign his name as well as he was in the bathroom of the residence at the time. Michael advised that he would be more than happy to re-sign the nomination form.

On 03/02/2020 at approximately 10:15AM, I spoke via telephone with Somer Ganser. Somer advised that she recalls a time in December when "a lady came to our house while we were eating dinner and my husband and I signed her form. It been a while so I don't remember exactly but I do remember both of us signing."

The complaint by Mr. Ellinger also requests that this office review any and all nomination signatures Mrs. Yuhas submitted for 2020, 2018 and 2016 nomination forms as well as any nomination forms that she submitted during her tenure on the Village of Pleasant Prairie WI Board of trustees. This request is too broad, lacks specificity and fails to identify specific instances of alleged violations as contained in the first request. Therefore no action shall be taken in regards to this second request.

Additionally, guidance can be sought from Chapter 5 of the Wisconsin State Statutes. The filing of this complaint on February 24th, 2020 is 48 calendar days after the January 7th, 2020 due date for Spring 2020 election nomination papers. Wisconsin State Statute §5.06(3) states that....

A complaint under this section shall be filed promptly so as not to prejudice the rights of any other party. In no case may a complaint relating to nominations, qualifications of candidates or ballot preparation be filed later than 10 days after the complainant knew or should have known that a violation of law or abuse of discretion occurred or was proposed to occur.

Due to the fact that this complaint involves a Kenosha County elected official a review/ decision on how to proceed with this complaint will be sought from an agency outside of Kenosha County.EOR

Notice to the Complainant:

Failure to properly complete this verified complaint form and provide supporting documentation may result in your complaint being denied without further investigation or review.

Further, please know the submission of a properly completed verified complaint form along with supporting documentation does not mean that a violation of law has occurred. The Kenosha County District Attorney's Office expressly reserves the right and authority to determine if criminal or other charges are warranted and/ or if the complaint has prosecutive merit.

Complaints regarding actions of local election officials pursuant to §5.06, Stats. must also be mailed or personally served on the respondent, and the complainant must certify to that service in a cover letter to the Kenosha County District Attorneys Office filed with the complaint.

February 24, 2020

I, Andrew F. Ellinger, allege that:

Supervisor Monica Yuhas, having knowingly signed as circulator of her own nomination papers, committed a felony under Wis. Stat. 12.13(3)(a) when:

1. On December 1, 2019, and on page 1, line 9 and 10 of her 2020 election nomination papers (Exhibit A) she was aware that: the same person (presumably Michael or Maie Merand) signed her nomination papers for both Michael Merand and Maie Merand,
2. On December 1, 2019, and on page 3, line 8 and 9 of her 2020 election nomination papers (Exhibit B) she was aware that: the same person (presumably Sean or Somer Ganser) signed her nomination papers for both Sean Ganser and Somer Ganser, and
3. On December 1, 2019, and on page 2, line 4 and 5 of her 2020 election nomination papers (Exhibit C) she was aware that:
Sharon Clark (as evidenced by comparing Joseph Clark's signature on Gulley's 2020 nomination papers (Exhibit D) which he signed as circulator) signed her nomination papers for both Sharon Clark and Joe Clark,

Because the integrity of our elections and our elected officials is an important and essential principle in our government, I expect you to further investigate ALL of the signatures on Supervisor Yuhas's 2020, 2018, and 2016 nomination papers, as well as her nomination signatures she submitted while on the Pleasant Prairie Village Board, or for any other candidates. I also expect you to charge Supervisor Yuhas with a felony for each and every confirmed instance of election fraud.

Signed,

Andrew F. Ellinger
